

*Connection terminals should be oriented as indicated in the drawing

*Adapter retaining ring should be used if rear access is available or mounting hole is too large. Exact fit holes should be made when access to the rear of the adapter is not available.

*Tweeter should be press fit until its flange is flush with that of the adapter. This will be in the recess area shown.

FLUSH MOUNT ADAPTER